

A black and white line drawing of a stylized, abstract figure, possibly a person or a creature, with a large, rounded head and a long, flowing, wavy body. The figure is composed of thick, bold lines and is set against a white background. The head is large and rounded, with a small, dark, circular feature that could be an eye or a nose. The body is long and flowing, with a wavy, undulating shape that suggests movement or a long, flowing mane or tail. The overall style is minimalist and graphic, with a focus on bold, expressive lines.
