

MONSTER EGG MASH

A black and white line drawing of a kitchen scene with anthropomorphic food items. At the top, the title "MONSTER EGG MASH" is written in a bold, blocky font. Below the title, a large egg is cracked open, with two small, furry monster-like creatures (one with a whisk, one with a spoon) inside it. To the left of the egg is a slice of toast with a face and a carton of milk with a grumpy face. To the right of the egg is a bowl of cereal with a face. A large splash of liquid is at the bottom. The entire scene is framed by a thick black border.
